

Effectual Calling

Introduction to the Ordo Salutis (Order of Salvation)

Ordo Salutis	Description	Our role	Sacraments
Effectual Calling	God calls us out	passive
Regeneration	Our hearts awakened	passive
Faith	Trust in Christ	active	baptism
Justification	Declared righteous	passive
Sanctification	Growth in holiness	active	communion
Glorification	Resurrected life	passive

(1) Application of Christ's redemption

- occurs in stages

(2) Helps us understand the nature of our salvation

- implications for understanding predestination

(3) The whole Ordo is "salvation"

- we have been saved
- we are being saved
- we will be saved

(4) The whole Ordo is linked together

- all who are "effectually called" will be "glorified"

Romans 8:30

And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.

(5) Helps us to understand the role of sacraments

- baptism and communion as signs/seals of the Ordo Salutis

The Call of God

1 Peter 2:9-10

⁹ But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. ¹⁰ Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

There are two calls: (1) General gospel call – for all people

Mark 16:15-16

¹⁵ And Jesus said to his disciples, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. ¹⁶ Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned."

(2) Effectual Call – only for those chosen by God

Acts 16:13-14

¹³ And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. ¹⁴ One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul.

Other passages:

Matthew 22:1-14

For many are called, but few are chosen.

1 Thessalonians 1:4-5

⁴ For we know, brothers loved by God, that he has chosen you, ⁵ because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction.

1 Corinthians 1:23-24

²³ We preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, ²⁴ but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

Romans 1:7

To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Implications of Effectual Call

(1) This is God's sovereign act; we are entirely passive

- which means we are predestined

John 11:43-44

⁴³ When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out." ⁴⁴ The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth.

(2) Gives us deep assurance

- if we are called by God, we will surely be saved

John 6:37-39

³⁷ All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. ³⁸ For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. ³⁹ And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day.

(3) We need to live true to our call

Ephesians 4:1-3

¹ I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, ² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, ³ eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Westminster Confession of Faith (chapter 10, section 1)

All those whom God has predestinated unto life, and those only, He is pleased, in His appointed time, effectually to call, by His Word and Spirit, out of that state of sin and death, in which they are by nature to grace and salvation, by Jesus Christ; enlightening their minds spiritually and savingly to understand the things of God, taking away their heart of stone, and giving unto them an heart of flesh; renewing their wills, and, by His almighty power, determining them to that which is good, and effectually drawing them to Jesus Christ: yet so, as they come most freely, being made willing by His grace.

Notes

(1) Application of Christ's redemption

- occurs in stages
- brief description of each component

(2) The Ordo Salutis is a theological analysis of salvation

- why important?

When we think through clearly how saved:

- helps us understand nature of our salvation
 - what is our role? what is God's role?
 - ultimately magnifies grace of God | deeply comforts us
- and gives us language to talk about our salvation

Much of confusion about gospel comes from vague understanding

- for example: does salvation include works?
 - answer: depends on what you're talking about?

(3) The whole Ordo is salvation

- we tend to reduce salvation to just justification
- justification is heart of our salvation, but not the whole

Therefore –

- we have been saved [effectual calling – justification]
- we are being saved [sanctification]
- we will be saved [glorification]

(4) Whole Ordo is linked together

- Romans 8:30 – everyone at stage one will be at final stage
- whole implications for perseverance | can lose salvation?

(5) Sacraments are visible signs/seals of Ordo

- this is why improper to partake Communion w/o Baptism

(6) Timeline of Ordo

- each component are logically separate, but not necessarily in time
 - in fact, first four are virtually the same moment in time

The Call of God

1 Peter 2:9 – “called you out of darkness into his marvelous light”

- God's calling is simply the call out of sin/death into salvation

Two calls

- but isn't everyone called?
- does everyone who is called (hears gospel) saved?

General call – for all people

Mark 16 – “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation.”

- we are to indiscriminately call all people to salvation

But not everyone who hears the general call will be saved

- there is a call that God empowers with his Spirit
- example: imagine a summons to the king
- but summons itself does not guarantee show up
- so the king sends his guard to accompany
- “effectual” – produces what it effects

Acts 16 – case of Lydia

- Paul preaches gospel to group of women (general call)
- but only Lydia came to believe the gospel
- why? because God effectually worked in her heart

Therefore, two calls

- general call given to all people – external, visible
- effectual call that God gives – internal, invisible
- general call + Spirit = effectual call

See this in many passages

Matthew 22:1-14 – “for many are called, but few are chosen”

- “call” here is general, but not everyone is “chosen”

1 Thessalonians 1:4-5 – “gospel came not only in word”

- there is a gospel call that is only the word – general call
- and a call with power and Spirit and conviction – effectual call

1 Corinthians 1:23-24 – “we preach...but to those who are called”

- Paul preaches to everyone – general call
- but only those who are “called” are saved – effectual call

Romans 1:7 – “called to be saints”

- therefore, to be a Christian is synonymous with being “called”
- they are one and the same

Implications

(1) This is God’s sovereign act | we are entirely passive

- this is what God does to us; we have no role or part in this
- we do not call ourselves

Example – Jesus’ call of Lazarus

- can Lazarus call himself? no!
- why? because he is dead!
- so it depends entirely on God who to call

Which means, we are predestined

- ultimately, who is saved and who is not saved is up to God, not us

This is an upsetting doctrine for many people

- doesn’t seem fair
- this is true | but salvation isn’t about fairness, it’s about grace

When overcome hardness of doctrine – there is sweetness inside

- because it means salvation is of the Lord!
- it is God who saves us | we have no part in deciding to be saved
- therefore, it is all of God’s grace
- this magnifies grace of God

(2) Gives us deep assurance

- remember Romans 8:30 – everyone called will be glorified
- since we are predestined, we cannot un-call ourselves
- the Spirit will most assuredly complete work in us

(3) We need to live according to our call

- in the call itself, we are entirely passive
- but the call does not produce passivity!
- we need to live in a manner true to our call (Eph. 4:1)
- call to holiness!
